Together We're Better Inclusive Education Campaign

We All Have a Story to Tell!

Outcomes for Students in High School:

By participating in these presentations, students will…

- Examine the importance of disability representation in the media, how disability is portrayed in TV shows and in movies.
- Explore how social media platforms are being used to educate and inform people about disabilities.
- Understand how unconscious biases can lead to stereotypes about different groups of people and how to prevent making assumptions about people's abilities and worth.
- Learn about the concept of disability "intersectionality": the cross-section of identities which acknowledges that everyone has their own unique lived experiences.

To schedule a presentation at your school, contact Natalie Brooks, Director of Education Initiatives and Partnerships: NBrooks@thearcmd.org.

This project is supported by the Administration for Community Living (ACL), U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) as part of a financial assistance award totaling $1,254,032. The contents are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily represent the official views of, nor an endorsement, by ACL/HHS, or the U.S. Government.