Together We're Better Inclusive Education Campaign

"What's normal, anyway?" Disability is natural!

Outcomes for Students in Middle School:

By participating in these presentations, students will…

- Have a "safe space" to hear a young adult's personal experience with disability.
- Engage in a facilitated discussion about equity, equality, inclusion, and belonging, as well as understand the differences between these common terms.
- Be introduced to the concepts of disability etiquette and sensitivity.
- Learn about different famous people with a disclosed disability throughout history.
- Develop social emotional learning (SEL) competencies and connect with students of various backgrounds, cultures, identities, and abilities.

To schedule a presentation at your school, contact Natalie Brooks, Director of Education Initiatives and Partnerships: NBrooks@thearcmd.org.

This project is supported by the Administration for Community Living (ACL), U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) as part of a financial assistance award totaling $1,254,032. The contents are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily represent the official views of, nor an endorsement, by ACL/HHS, or the U.S. Government.